The Chapters of a Life

A Life Appreciation Guide

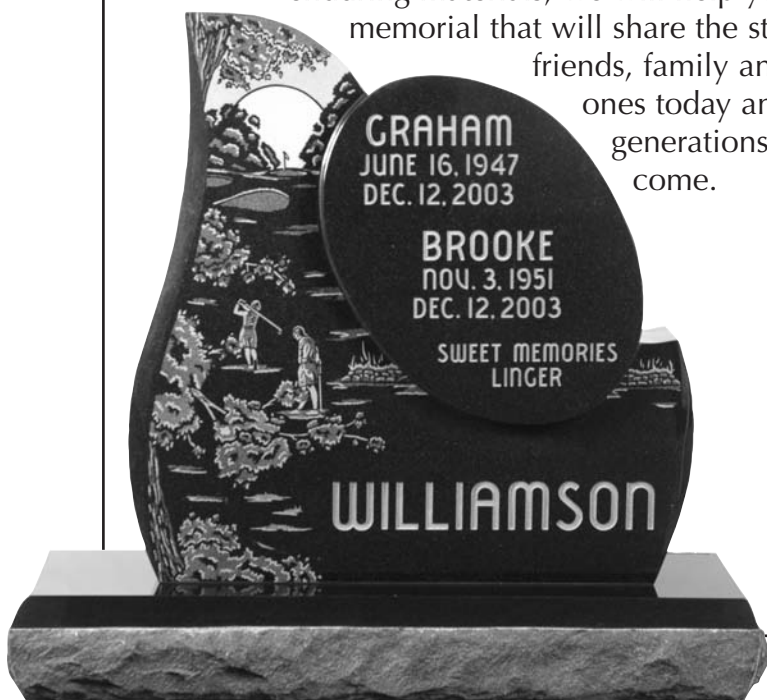

Create a Tribute As Unique As a Life Itself

People loved and lives touched. Talents, skills and passions. Milestones and special achievements. Cherished moments and fondest memories. Where we come from and the past that makes us who we are. Every life is a combination of many different facets. Every life is meaningful and there are many creative ways to see that life remembered.

A Personal Legacy

This Life Appreciation Guide is designed to help you create a tribute as unique as the life it honours. With sensitivity in design, dedication to excellence in craftsmanship and the finest, most enduring materials, we will help you create an original memorial that will share the story of a life with friends, family and loved ones today and for generations to come.

Remembering Beginnings

Family Heritage

Family heritage can have a dramatic impact on who we are and who we become. Think about the role ethnic origin and family history played in the life you are celebrating.

Remembering Daily Life

Life's Work

Our work can help to define us. It can be a big part of who we are. How did this person's work affect their life and the lives of others?

Life's Accomplishments

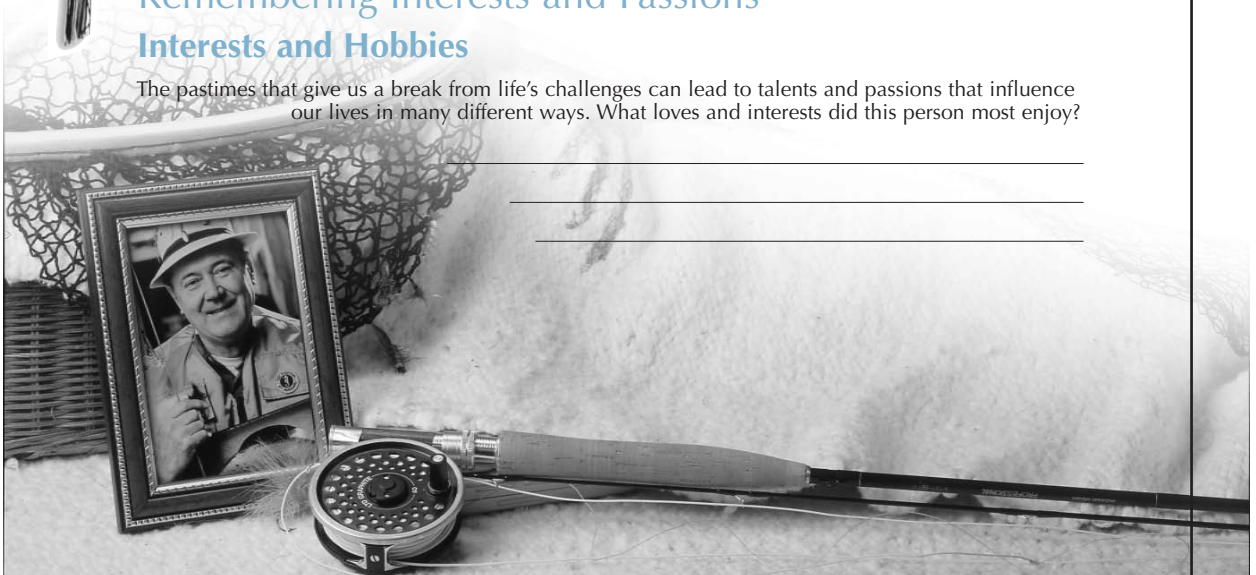

Every life includes significant contributions. Some are well known and widely celebrated. Some are known only to family, friends and loved ones. All are important. What accomplishments in this person's life are most meaningful to you?

Remembering Interests and Passions

Interests and Hobbies

The pastimes that give us a break from life's challenges can lead to talents and passions that influence our lives in many different ways. What loves and interests did this person most enjoy?

Social and Civic Contributions

Service to others can be a source of great satisfaction and fulfillment. Giving of themselves or their resources can make a real difference in the lives of others and add value to society. What contributions did this person make that should not be forgotten?

Remembering Special Times Memorable Events and Occasions

A wedding day ... a child's arrival in the world ... a special family holiday ... a great achievement ... recognition and acknowledgement ... moments like these are the heart's greatest treasures. Recalling them is a magical gift that each life passes to those who remain. Think about those times. Which memories linger?

Remembering Who They Really Were

Faith and Beliefs

For many, conviction and belief in that which is greater than ourselves gives hope and strength when all else fails and has a great impact on all aspects of a life. What was the importance of faith to this person and how was that seen by others?

Character and Traits

Generosity. Compassion. Determination. Dependability. Humour. The facets that make up a personality may be the most important story that can be told about that person. Character speaks to others about who we really are and determines how we live our life. How would you describe the defining characteristics of this person's life?
